JOHN 3:16-17

We all know what it feels like to return home. For some, it's like a familiar welcome, where you're seen, known, and loved. For others, home is fraught with terrible memories and deep sadness — if not fear.

But what if there was a home that was always good? What if there was a family that was always welcoming and kind, one that consistently saw, knew, and loved you?

John 3:16-17 (Amp) “For God so [greatly] loved and dearly prized the world, that He [even] gave His only begotten Son, so that whoever believes in, (trusts in, clings to, relies on) Him shall not perish (come to destruction, be lost), but have eternal (everlasting) life. ¹⁷ For God did not send the Son into the world to judge (to reject, to condemn, to pass sentence on) the world, but that the world might find salvation and be made safe and sound through Him.”

John 3:17 “For God did not send the Son into the world in order to judge the world... but that the world might be made safe and sound through Him.”
